

CLASS :
EXAM NO :

TIME : 3 Hrs
MARKS : 80

Reading Comprehension

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow

1. Passage:

Surya was different from other students in his approach to sports. While most children focused on winning, he believed in enjoying every moment of the game. He would laugh and joke during matches, never letting defeat affect his cheerful spirit. His attitude taught Prabhat, a competitive player who couldn't bear losing, an important lesson about sporting spirit. Through observing Surya's behavior, Prabhat realized that games should be enjoyed for their own sake, not just for winning. This change of heart transformed Prabhat from someone who cheated to win into a player with true sporting spirit. Soon, other students noticed the change and started enjoying playing with him.

(a) How did Surya's approach to sports differ from Prabhat's initial attitude? [1 marks]

1b. (b) What unethical action did Prabhat take during his badminton match with Surya? [1 marks]

1c. (c) Explain how Prabhat's transformation affected his relationships with other students. [1 marks]

1d. (d) Why do you think Surya's attitude had such a profound impact on Prabhat? [1 marks]

1e. (e) What life lesson can be derived from this story about competition and sportsmanship? [1 marks]

Writing

Write a notice in 50-60 words

2. You are the Sports Secretary of your school. Write a notice informing students about either:

(a) An Inter-House Badminton Tournament to be held on the last Friday of the month, mentioning the selection process, practice timings, and the importance of sporting spirit.

OR

(b) A Yoga Workshop being organized by the school in collaboration with WHO on International Yoga Day, highlighting the benefits of yoga for physical and mental well-being. [5 marks]

Grammar

Answer all grammar questions

3a. Identify and classify the adverbs in the following sentences:

(i) Surya played basketball so hopelessly that he couldn't score for ten minutes.

(ii) Prabhat surprisingly couldn't sleep well that night after winning. [2 marks]

3b. Convert the following sentences from active to passive voice:

(i) Prabhat changed the scoreboard while Surya was looking elsewhere.

(ii) Daadi taught Vikram and Vaibhavi many natural cures using kitchen spices. [2 marks]

3c. Fill in the blanks with appropriate future tense forms:

(i) By next Friday, the coach _____ (conduct) friendly matches for all teams.

(ii) The WHO mYoga app _____ (help) millions practice yoga by the end of this year. [1 marks]

Literature

Answer with reference to the context

4. Read the extract and answer the questions:

'Prabhat kept a close watch on Surya for some days. He was great at some things, terrible at others but what was common was the enjoyment. He enjoyed everything equally. As Prabhat went on with his observation, he realised that to enjoy a game, you did not need a scoreboard to keep a tally of your scores.'

(a) What contradiction did Prabhat observe in Surya's abilities?

(b) What important realization did Prabhat have about enjoying games?

(c) How does this extract reflect the theme of 'Change of Heart'?

(d) What does 'kept a close watch' suggest about Prabhat's state of mind?

(e) Analyze how this observation period was crucial for Prabhat's transformation. [5 marks]

5. Read the poetic extract and answer the questions:

'When blue dark turns to black,
cold grass aches our feet,
trees creep close—
game's over.
Night wins!'

(a) What time of day is being described in these lines?

(b) Explain the personification used in 'Night wins!'

(c) Why does the poet say 'cold grass aches our feet'?

(d) What literary device is used in 'trees creep close'?

(e) How does this extract capture the end of children's playtime? [5 marks]

6a. Why did Daadi ask Vikram and Vaibhavi to share the natural cures with their friends? How does this reflect the tradition of passing knowledge through generations? [2 marks]

6b. Explain how the title 'Change of Heart' is suitable for the story about Prabhat and Surya. [2 marks]

6c. What does the launch of the WHO mYoga app tell us about the global importance of yoga?

[2 marks]

6d. How did Surya's attitude differ from Prabhat's approach to games initially? [2 marks]

6e. Describe the healing properties of any two spices mentioned in Daadi's letter. [2 marks]

7. Prabhat's transformation from a win-at-all-costs player to someone with true sporting spirit teaches us valuable life lessons. Discuss how his observation of Surya led to this change and explain why sporting spirit is more important than winning. Support your answer with examples from the text and relate it to real-life situations where such values matter. [5 marks]

SUMMARY OF PAPER GENERATION

Section Reading Comprehension: Reading Comprehension | Total Marks: 5

Section Writing: Writing | Total Marks: 5

Section Grammar: Grammar | Total Marks: 5

Section Literature: Literature | Total Marks: 25